

ASSIGNMENT NAME:      Social Policy Creative Critique

COURSE:                      CRIM 2003 – Youth and Crime

PROFESSOR:                 Daniel Bear

DUE DATE:                 Start of class, week of November 16, 2015

VALUE:                         15% of Final Grade

---

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this assignment you will have:

- Critiqued a social policy/political agenda related to youth and crime
- Conveyed your message in a creative form

Instructions

1. Choose a social policy, law, or political agenda related to youth and crime
2. Critique the policy or political agenda in a creative manner by developing a.....
  - Political campaign ad (print or visual) that critiques an existing political campaign policy, or existing social policy, Poem, or song( words & music), or pamphlet, or skit (you will have to videotape it). Other creative options may be accepted with prior consultation with your Professor.
3. You may do this project individually or you may form a small group of 2 – 4 students to complete and submit a joint project. If you chose to do this as a small group only 1 person is to submit the assignment via the assignment drop box.

Tip/Hints

If in doubt about your topic or other aspects of the assignment speak to the Professor for guidance (book an appointment, drop by during office hours, send an email)

Consult the Library Guide for CJ program on Humber Library Website and consult with librarian or instructor for assistance with locating social policy and political campaign platforms

Complete your assignment at least 2 days before due date and take some time to proof read your work and correct spelling/grammar errors (the writing centre is an excellent source of assistance with writing, proof reading and referencing)

Formatting and Style:

You must cite your sources as in any other paper if you submit a written assignment

The format of your assignment will differ depending on what you choose to do

Evaluation (15% of final grade)

- Assignments will be graded on
  - the accuracy and clarity of message
  - the creativity of the message
  - the demonstrated level of understanding of the policy/political platform displayed

Submission

You do not need to submit this assignment to Turn-it-in.
Submit completed assignment to the drop box in the blackboard course website